

Nina the Cat Has a Plan

Nina is a small, white cat.
She lives in a bookstore.
She likes to sit on warm books.
She likes to watch people read.

But, today is a noisy day.
A big dog barks outside. "Woof! Woof! Woof!"
People don't come in.
The store is quiet.
The owner is sad.
"No people, no books, no fun," Nina thinks.

Nina has a plan.
She jumps into the window.
She rolls on her back.
She plays with a red ribbon.

People walk by and see her.
"Oh! Look! A cute cat!"
One by one, people come inside.
They smile. They read. They buy books.

The owner gives Nina a treat.
"Good job," he says.
Nina is happy.
She goes back to the books.

Nina is just a cat—with a smart plan.
